"Under Southern Skies."

The earning powers of the present day dramatic output seem to be limited to a year, or possibly two. Of course there are some exceptions to this rule, and the most notable ones that come to mind are Lottie Blair Parker's two plays, "Way Down East," now in its tenth year, and "Under Southern Skies," now entering upon its fifth year of usefulness; and, judging from the reception that has been extended to this play so far this year, the present tour will no doubt be a record one, in point of attendance and financial returns. "Under Southern Skies" has been played 1,732 times during the past four years to the enormous sum of $319,310.40, and more than 2,000,000 people have witnessed the performance of this remarkable play. "Under Southern Skies" will be seen at the opera house next Monday evening, Sept. 25.

COURT MARTIAL.

Bennington Officers Testify That They Knew Little About Conditions.

Marine Island, Cal., Sept. 22.—In the court martial trial of Commander Lucien Young, U. S. N., yesterday in connection with the fatal boiler explosion on the United States gunboat Bennington at San Diego on July 21, J. J. Northen said he did not know the condition of the band lifting gear of boiler B before the explosion of July 21.

Lieut. P. H. Yates, U. S. N., executive officer of the Bennington, testified that he had served aboard the Bennington since March 6, 1905. Shortly after ten o'clock a. m., the time of the explosion, he said he was sitting in his room. He had not inspected the Bennington every Sunday morning, he said. As it was not his duty to accompany Commander Young, he did not do so until July 10 or 12. On the day of the explosion the complement of the ship was 197 men.

The prosecution offered in evidence extracts from the log from 8 a. m. to midnight, each Sunday from November 14, 1904, to July 23, 1905, to show how often the commander inspected the ship. Witness said the complement of 197 men did not include a warrant machinist.

Railroads and Liquor.

The new rule-books of nearly all the railways entering Chicago contain the following or words to the same effect: "The use of intoxicants by employees while on duty is prohibited. Their habitual use, or the frequenting of places where they are sold, is sufficient cause for dismissal. The use of tobacco by employees when on duty in and about passenger stations or on passenger cars is prohibited."

As the rules are now practically the same on all railroads, some are more severe than others in their enforcement. Not all the railroads assume to say whether an operating employee may drink when off duty, while henceforth not a few, the Rock Island, for example, will discharge men for frequenting saloons whether on or off duty. The reform has been brought about solely with the idea of increasing the safety in train operation, and officials declare that the prohibitions have decreased wrecks and accidents fully 25 per cent.—Exchange.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores Of Barre Readers Are Learning The Duty Of The Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

Barre people endorse our claim.

Veteran Geo. W. Hunt (retired), Miles Block, says: "When I went to E. A. Brown's drug store in the winter of 1897, for Doan's Kidney Pills I had been subject to attacks of dragging, heavy pains in the small of my back, extending downwards. They were particularly in evidence after a hard day's work or if I exerted myself in any way. Many a night Mrs. Hunt has rubbed my back with liniment and applied hot water for the slight ease those makeshifts afforded. I was so pleased at the respite I received from the almost constant pain that when Doan's Kidney Pills stopped it I endorsed them publicly. I have had no reason to alter my opinion in the interim. I can add to my own experience that of others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills and are just as enthusiastic about the benefit received as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
